

THE CONAFAY GROUP

GOVERNMENT RELATIONS ● SCIENTIFIC PERSPECTIVE

SARAH LANDRY

Consultant

slandry@conafaygroup.com

Sarah Landry has 25 years of experience in strategic planning, policy and communications in public health areas of national importance. She brings that experience to The Conafay Group to help in delivering solutions for life-science companies and academic research institutions.

As Senior Advisor to the Director of the National Vaccine Program Office (NVPO) HHS, Ms. Landry provided technical advice and guidance to the Director with regard to vaccination activities, particularly related to the development of both the National Pandemic Influenza Plan and the National Vaccine Plan. In addition, Ms. Landry spent 18 years at the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases (NIAID), NIH. Previously, Ms. Landry served as the Director of Vaccine Public Policy and Advocacy at GlaxoSmithKline overseeing all immunization related policy and advocacy issues at both the state and federal levels.

Ms. Landry is a graduate of the University of Maryland with a degree in Zoology and Johns Hopkins University with a Masters in Science Writing. She is a Commerce-Science Technology Fellow and an Excellence in Government Fellow.

